In 10 years, many things happened to the Argentine legend. He scored his first goal on May in 2005, during Barcelona vs. Albacete. The 17 year old was already soaring. Neymar, when he joined Barcelona. In 2009 he received the FIFA World Player of The Year. He later won again in 2011 and 2012. "Argentina is very lucky to have Messi on their team. They should make sure he is always in perfect shape when playing so that they have more chances to win the World Cup. They should use him to the fullest, or else it's useless having him (No Offense)"; says reporter Nandan Nair. Pretty soon, Messi might become better than the "King of Soccer", Diego Maradona!
